

are not to be repaired by age, the remaining part of his life was unhappy ; for he was miserably afflicted with a complication of disorders, that were brought on him by the intemperance of his youth, and of which he died in a few years after his father.

THE

T H

L I

O

WOGLOG the

We have already
 W our former wo
 conquered by
 beat him, notwithstand
 and reduced him (who outrageous) to such a f afterwards became a
 employed his time chi
 who were in distress,
 who were turbulent an